

Security in Veculim can be configured to allow each user to log in with their own details. You can also configure which windows you would like each user to access and set limitation as to whether they may insert, change or delete records, etc.

Main-security